THE JUNEAU COMMUNITY FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES DOUGLAS-DORNAN FUND GRANTS

JUNEAU--The Juneau Community Foundation announced today its support for many Juneau organizations with over $21,000 in funding from the Douglas-Dornan Foundation Fund.

"Our fund advisors were very pleased and impressed with the quality and diversity of the grant applications we received," said Paul Douglas, donor advisor of the Douglas-Dornan Foundation Fund.

Grants were awarded to:

- Girl Scouts, Troop 4016: $126, to provide infant and toddler toothbrush kits for children of teen parents.
- Juneau Afterschool Coalition: $600, to deliver Safe Sitter training to middle school students in their afterschool program.
- Juneau Alaska Music Matters (JAMM): $3,600 to train the music program trainer at Riverbend School.
- Juneau School Band Boosters: $757, to repair instruments used by the school bands.
- Juneau Jumpers: $1,500, to purchase ropes for workshops and support the team.
- Juneau Nordic Devo Team: $500, through 4-H to provide matching grant to support their programs.
- Lynn Canal Running Camp: $3,000, to support counselors and provide need based scholarships.
- Perseverance Theatre: $2,500, to deliver the REACH Canvas acting program.
- SAIL, Inc.: $3,000 to repair equipment and provide need based scholarships.
- Southeast Alaska Regional Science Fair: $1,000 to support the annual high school level science fair.
- Southeast Regional Resource Center: $1,170 to provide supplies and ensure Gruening Park availability for programs.
- Zach Gordon Youth Center: $2,500 to support the Jesuit Volunteer for the Youth Healthy Living program.

The Douglas-Dornan Foundation Fund has been making annual competitive grants to support Juneau and other southeast communities since 1994. During that time this Fund has supported over 100 different organizations, programs and individuals and distributed almost $350,000 in awards and grants. Each year the Juneau Community Foundation's Douglas-Dornan Fund advertises for competitive awards and accepts applications after April 1. Please visit the Foundation website, juneaucf.org, for more information about this fund and the application process.

The Foundation encourages local businesses and individuals to consider supporting organizations like these by donating now to the Douglas-Dornan Fund of the Juneau Community Foundation or by including the Foundation in your planned giving. Your support will allow the Community Foundation to make similar contributions in the future.
